Respected Sir,

We, AbadIndia AshoreBase Resources are registered vendor for L & T Energy Hydrocarbon for clearance of their Garbage & Wooden Waste generated at L & T offshore ongoing Projects at Mumbai High.

We are in receipt of Wooden Waste duly arrived as per above given reference details.

Further to inform you that the duly received Wooden Waste from the above reference details are strictly coastal by nature.

For its outward clearance we had approached Custom Division B II, and we were advised by Suptd. Name Shri Rajesh Kadam to approach your good office and avail initial clearance and later approach B II Division thereafter.

We hereby enclose all relevant documents available for the subject and reference as requested for your kind outward permission.

- 1) Request Letter by AbadIndia addressed to B II Custom Division for necessary Discharge Permission for the same.
- 2) Duly arrived Garbage / Wooden Waste Manifest delivered from Offshore via Supply vessels as mentioned in reference.
- 3) L & T Energy Hydrocarbon – Request Letter for outward clearance of Garbage & Wooden Waste for the said duly arrived supply vessels chartered by L & T.
- 4) Enclosed L & T email Copy for outward clearance of Garbage & Wooden Waste as per reference details.
- 5) Reference vessel Master's Letter pertaining for Garbage & Wooden Waste clearance duly arrived from Offshore under Ongoing L & T Offshore Projects.

Sir,

We hereby request for your kind Approval / Permission for the said Coastal Wooden Waste out of Port Premises and Oblige.

Please see request of M/S Albad India Ashore Base resources overleaf. In this regard, M/S L&T vide email dated 11.04.23 has informed that the waste wood are generated from goods purchased domestic market and used as packing packing material for project material used for Oil exploration on its onward delivery to offshore in safe and secured condition. Therefor, it appears that the packing material is endogenous in nature. In view of above, request of party may be considered favourably.

Submitted, please.
